Just A Little Word Spell'd
Y-O-U

No. 18

By G. A. WALTER, Jr.

Allegro Moderato

The piano introduction consists of two staves (treble and bass clef) in 2/4 time. It begins with a melody in the right hand and a supporting bass line in the left hand. The music is marked mf (mezzo-forte). The key signature has three sharps (F#, C#, G#).

The first system of the vocal score shows the vocal line and piano accompaniment. The vocal line starts with a rest, then enters with the lyrics. The piano accompaniment is marked p (piano). The lyrics are: "Till Ready (He) Web-ster was an ed - u - ca - tor, A (She) Mis - ter Web - ster, I'm quite sure He".

The second system of the vocal score continues the vocal line and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "brain-y man was he, Which his great book the dic - tion - ar - y, knew a thing or two He fixed that word as it should be, Just".

The third system of the vocal score continues the vocal line and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "Shows im - plic - it - ly, But there's a word that he de - fined, I'm right for such as you, If he'd de - fined it as you wish, There'd".

sure I don't a - gree, For it means all that's be lots of re - gret, For what would then, be - good and sweet and pure and dear to me.

come of words like sweet - heart, lov - er, pet?

Just that lit - tle word - spell'd Y - O - U, p-f

It's the dear - est word I know,

All the day long, in sweet dreams too, Something keeps on say - ing

you, you, you, When I press your hand so soft - ly,

Gaze in - to your eyes so true, Then I know that word spell'd

Y - O - U, Means just you. you.
