

LIFE ISN'T ALL ROSES

ROSIE

EACH LITTLE ROSE HAS IT'S THORN

WORDS BY ALFRED BRYAN

MUSIC BY SEYMOUR FURTH

JOE MORRIS MUSIC CO
130 WEST 37th ST. NEW YORK

Life Isn't All Roses, Rosie.

3

Words by Al. Bryan.

Music by Seymour Furth.

Piano. f

Ros - ie, Ros - ie, whattroub - les you dear? you have - n't smiled all Lis - ten Ros - ie, rob - in is sing - ing, Up in the ap - ple -

p

day, _____ Tear-drops will bring you wrinkles, Ros - ie, And tree, _____ Dais-ies are bloom-ing in the mead - ow, Are chase all your dim - ples a - way, _____ What have I done to bloom - ing for you and for me, _____ Birds in blos - soms, and

Copyright 1911 by The Joe. Morris Music Co. 130 W. 37th St. New York N.Y.

3 The Publishers Reserve the right to the use of this Music or Melody for any Mechanical Instruments.
International Copyright Secured. All Rights Reserved. Albert & Son Australian Agents Sidney make you un-hap-py, Have I neg-lect-ed you? _____ Come now, be bees in the clov-er, This is no time to cry. _____ Af-ter the cheer-y don't be drear-y, Some-times you neg-lect me too. _____

 Spring-time comes the Ring-time, We'll be wed-ded bye - and - bye.

Chorus.

Life is - nt all ros - es, Ros - ie, Just take the p-f smiles with the tears, _____ Ros - es will bloom in the sum - mer, When win-ter's snow dis - ap - pears,

Af-ter the rain comes the rain - bow, Af-ter the night comes the morn. Life is - nt all ros - es, Ros - ie,

Each lit-tle rose has it's thorn. thorn.