Tune Uke
G C E A

Music by
BILLY STONE

Allegro moderato

Piano introduction in G major, 2/4 time. The music starts with a forte (f) dynamic. The right hand plays a series of chords and eighth notes, while the left hand provides a steady bass line. The piece concludes with a final chord and a fermata.

VOICE

The first vocal line begins with a piano introduction. The lyrics are "Mar-y had a lit-tle lamb they neigh!". The piano accompaniment features a forte (f) dynamic for the "neigh!" and a piano (p) dynamic for the rest of the phrase. The piano part includes a fermata over the final notes.

The second vocal line continues the melody. The lyrics are "say ————— But her fath - er". The piano accompaniment features a piano (p) dynamic. The piano part includes a fermata over the final notes.

The third vocal line concludes the piece. The lyrics are "said I'd rath - er you would own a cam - el So she went and". The piano accompaniment features a piano (p) dynamic. The piano part includes a fermata over the final notes.

Since She Learned To Ride A Horse

Extra Choruses

1

Lost her figure trim and neat -
Since she learned to ride a horse; -
You should see her rumble seat
Since she learned to ride a horse; -
You hear the children singing,
All around the town, Oh!
"Her London Breeches falling down!"
Since she learned to ride a horse!

2

Crowds fill up the subway trains,
Since she learned to ride a horse;
There's a rush for aeroplanes,
Since she learned to ride a horse;
In her sleep she hollers,
Giddyap and Whoa; - Ho!
All the horse-flies love her so,
Since she learned to ride a horse!

3

She was knock-kneed once I vow -
Since she learned to ride a horse
But she's bandy-legged now,
Since she learned to ride a horse,
Every day she tumbles -
Seems she never fails - Oh!
Thinks she is the Prince of Wales,
Since she learned to ride a horse!

4

Boy - she gets her husband's goat
Since she learned to ride a horse;
All he gets to eat is oats -
Since she learned to ride a horse;
He wants a separation,
The judge said "On what ground?" - Well!
She keeps horsing me around
Since she learned to ride a horse!
