day I'll wan-der back a - gain, To where the old home stands, Be - day I'll wan-der back a - gain, To scenes so dear to me Where day I'll wan-der back a - gain, To hearts so kind and true Whose neath the old tree down the lane, A - far in oth - er lands, — Its life sweet in fan-cies re - frain Be - side a moth - er's knee, — To gen - tle fac es still re main In mem - 'ries cher - ished view, — No hum - ble cot will shel - ter me, — From ev - 'ry care and pain, — And live once more the gold - en hour, — Of joy - ous mer - ry play, — No more my way - ward feet shall roam — Life's troub - led path - way o'er, — But life be sweet as sweet can be — When I am home a - gain. — thorns but on - ly sweet - est flow'rs — There in life's mer - ry way. — in the life and love of home — I'll rest me ev - er - more. —
