Sweet-est girl I ev-er saw, Was sell-ing ci-der in a groc-'ry store, At first I saw her with a straw, Said I to "she," "What are you doing that for? Said half-past six when the sun would set, I used to go to see my pet, She'd she to me: "Why don't you know, That sip-ping ci-der's all the go?" She take the key and lock the door, We'd get some ci-der and a big long straw. was so sweet, as sweet can be, But sip-ping ci-der was the end of me.
