When I was on - ly a ging - ham girl, And I dressed in a plain ging-ham gown, I was so hap - py in that coun - try town, And on my face you'd nev - er see a frown, I had a sweet - heart who carved my name, On that old ap-ple tree down the lane, ————— That was long a - -go still I con - fess I'd give what ev - er I pos - -sess, If I could wear a ging - ham dress And be a ging-ham girl once more. 1 2 more.
