The unusual content of its 259 pages affords an open door to those enduring melodies which are virtually a necessity in the experience of all who have an interest in vocal music. Magic Melodies of the Gay Nineties...

The songs of yesterday that are beloved by the singers of today. A collection of over eighty old timers, that remain perennially young in spirit. The titles have been selected purely for the pleasure they can give . . . with all the favorites of bygone days included.
