"By The Old Oak Tree?"

Words by GEORGE V. HOBART.

Music by MAX HOFFMANN.

CHORUS. Slow.

The dove said, "Coo! Coo! — Wont you come a - long and woo, woo," — The crow said, "Caw! Caw! — You're the worst I ev - er saw, saw," — But the rur-al lov - ers smiled with glee, For — she loved he and he loved she, And they kept on a - lov-ing just as hap-py as could be, By the old oak tree. The dove said tree. —

The score consists of a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The key signature is one sharp (F#) and the time signature is 2/4. The music is marked "Slow". The piano accompaniment features a steady eighth-note bass line and a more active treble line with chords and melodic fragments. The vocal line is simple and conversational, with lyrics written below the notes. The piece concludes with a double bar line and a first/second ending.
