BY THE WEeping WATERS

No. 14235 Price, 40 Cents

There is an old Indian legend concerning the weeping waters in Minnesota. There are Indians from the North down a party of Sioux warriors across the river above the falls and killed all before they could reach the opposite shore. They say that the water was red with blood and that when it floated over the falls, the waters began to weep. It was a custom for years to go there and mourn with the water. The square would plant the wild rose on the banks below in memory. The composition is mostly aboriginal with the exception of two fragmentary melodic interludes at the beginning and ending of the composition.
