

IF YOU DON'T WANT MY PEACHES

(YOU BETTER STOP SHAKING THE TREE)

WORDS AND MUSIC

by

IRVING BERLIN

JOHN FREW

WATERSON · BERLIN & SNYDER CO
MUSIC PUBLISHERS
STRAND THEATRE BUILDING
BROADWAY AT 47TH ST., N.Y.

IF YOU DON'T WANT MY PEACHES

(YOU'D BETTER STOP SHAKING MY TREE)

Words and Music by IRVING BERLIN

Moderato

till ready

Ma-ry Snow
Ma-ry's Pa

had a beau Who was bash-ful and shy,
and her Ma Soon came in-to the room,

She sim - ply could - nt make the boy pro - pose; —
They took a look at Ma - ry's beau and cried, —

No mat - ter how she'd try, —
"You ought — to be a groom, —

Ma - ry grew tired — of wait - ing, So she
Of course, it's none of our bus' - ness, But she'd called her beau one side, — While he stood there make a love - ly bride," — He just an - swered, bit - ing his fin - ger - nails, Ma - ry cried: _____

 "I'll think it ov - er," but Ma - ry cried: _____

CHORUS

If you don't want my peach - es, You'd p - f

bet - ter stop shak - ing my tree, _____

Let me say _____ that you're might - y slow, _____

You're as cold as an Es - ki - mo, There's a thous-and oth - ers wait - ing, Wait - ing to pro - pose to me, So if you don't want my peach - es, You'd bet - ter stop shak - ing my tree. If tree.

1. 2.

fz D.S.