JIMMY V. MONACO.

Moderato

Fun-ni-est pair of eyes I've ev-er seen, Fun-ny, I can't get wise to what they mean, I Why don't you try to make your eyes be-have, They seem to make me act just like a slave, For wish that I can un-der-stand the things they say, Each time I try to go, they seem to make me stay.

when they say to run a-way, I've al-ways found, The chances are, they mean that I should stick a-round.

May-be, it's just be-cause you love to flirt, May-be, you want to see my feel-ings hurt, You've Tho' I ad-mit your eyes are full of charm, Some-how I feel they mean to do me harm, Some got me run-ning 'round you like a child, Some day you're going to drive me wild.

day if I don't an-swer when they call, You'll have to blame your eyes, that's all.

CHORUS

So, what do you want to make those eyes at me for, When they don't mean what they say? They make me glad, They make me sad, They make me want a lot of things I've never had. So what do you want to fool a-round with me for? You lead me on, and then you run a-way, — But, never mind, I'll get you a-lone some night and then you'll surely find, You're flirt-ing with dy-na-mite, So what do you want to make those eyes at me for, When they don't mean what they say? — So what do you say?

Broadway's Verdict

"There's a Little Bit of Bad in Every Good Little Girl"

Yes, there is a "touch of tabasco"—a dash of pep and ginger—in this song. It's an irresistible twin-six success that hits the high spots of innocent fun.

You can't stop it any more than you can stop a cyclone. It carries Brice & King, Rae Samuels and other stage stars to almost endless encores.

Never before has a novelty song gripped the country like this one.

CHORUS Grant Clarke—Fred Fischer

There's a lit-tle bit of bad in ev-ry good lit-tle girl, They're not to blame,— Mother Eve was ver-y, ver-y good, but e-ven she raised Cain.— They read the good book Sun-day, And "I Know I Got More Than My Share"

Here is a ballad that surges with the wonderment of grateful love. Words of gratitude set to a melody that is so sweetly beautiful it is the talk of professional and amateur world.

If "M-O-T-H-E-R" made a hit with you, here is big hit No. 2.

Get a copy of this song and you will surely get more than your share of some sweet love ballad.
