Daugh-ter of the old chief Zing-a - zoo, She would lis - ten to him Breez-es lend en-chant-ment to our love, Stars are gleam-ing for us as he'd woo, And the wise old moon would lis - ten too, up a - bove, On ly two things I am think-ing of,

As he would ser - e - nade. — My heart is ring-ing, my love I'm You and the jun - gle moon. —

CHORUS

bring-ing, To you I'm sing-ing neath the jun - gle moon; — The dew is fall - ing, night-birds are call - ing, Be - cause they know you will be with me migh - ty soon, Come out and meet me — sweet - heart, and greet me With kiss - es sweet - ly, for I long to spoon; — In all its glo - ry, — I tell the sto - ry Of how I love you to the jungle moon. — My heart is moon.
