NO high class song of late years has attracted the attention of artists, musical critics, the profession and the public generally, as "If Tears Were Pearls," is doing.

The relation of this exquisite creation to sentimental songs is equivalent to the position occupied by the "The Rosary" in religious songs. "If Tears Were Pearls" has been generally pronounced a master-piece of sublime thought and superb melody. Special attention is directed to the fact that the words have been translated into German.

IF your dealer cannot supply you with this song, we will on receipt of 25 cts. send you a copy post-paid, to any part of the world.

Andante espressivo. With tenderness

If tears were pearls, then I would weave a chain of pearls for thee. And not a necklace ever worn, would half as lovely be. Such pearls I'd weave, as ne'er were found, be-
