

FORWARD, MARCH !

MISSISSIPPI VOLUNTEERS

WORDS BY ROBERT LEVENSON
 MUSIC BY
GEORGE L. COBB

WALTER JACOBS
 W.J. DEWE & SON, SYDNEY. SOLE AGENTS FOR AUSTRALIA AND NEW ZEALAND.

FARMER

Forward, March!

Mississippi Volunteers

Words by
ROBERT LEVENSONMusic by
GEORGE L. COBB

Tempo di Marcia

PIANO

See those Mis-sis-sip-pi Vol-un-teers par-ade,
There's a Pull-man por-ter down in Com-p'ny C,

In their brand new un-i-forms they're all ar-rayed; Here they come,
Says, "This life ain't what they cracked it up to be; Pork and beans,

Ev-'ry-one, Shuff-lin' a-long to the fife and the drum. When they're drill-in'
Canned sar-dines, Ain't what I got down in old New Or-leans. Ev-'ry time I on the lev-ee ev-'ry day, You can hear the Col-onel say;

dream that I'm a-way from here. Some-one hol-lers in my ear:"

CHORUS

Fall in line! Fall in line! Law - dy good-ness but you

p-f all look fine; — Hay - foot, Straw - foot, Come on and Mark your time! Mark your time! Mark your time! Shoul - der arms! Shoul - der arms!

Throw up your hats — and give Three cheers! Are you all read - y? (Spoken) (For-ward,

March! Mis-sis-sip-pi Vol-un - teers. — teers. — fz D.S.