I have met you out on part-ies, How you love to make the rounds of How you love your fun; I go home at nine, You stay out till all the cab-a - rets; Stay-ing till they close, Turn-ing nights to one. You may say that I'm old-fash-ioned, I'll ad-mit it's true, days. Don't you think a lit-tle cot-tage, where the ro-ses grow,

How I wish that you were that way, too
Is a sweet-er, nic-er, place to go
