

Love is Just a Gamble

(TAKE ANOTHER CHANCE)

Song Fox-Trot

PLAYED BY THE FAMOUS

BY
BEN SELVIN
LEW COBEY
AND IRVING MILLS

SAVOY ORPHEANS

COPYRIGHT. Published by arrangement with The Lawrence Wright Music Co., Denmark Street, Charing Cross Road, London, W.C.2. Supplement to WOMEN'S STORIES, week ending January 16th, 1926. This musical number is issued as a part of WOMEN'S STORIES, week ending January 16th, 1926, and in no circumstances must this supplement be separated and offered for sale apart from this issue. Copies of WOMEN'S STORIES, week ending January 16th, 1926, containing this song inset, must not be sold in any country outside Great Britain, other than the Irish Free State.

Love Is Just A Gamble

Tune Ukulele as follows:-

4th string (nearest the player) — D — 1st string
3rd string — A — 2nd string

(Take Another Chance)

By BEN SELVIN,
LEW COBEY
& IRVING MILLS

Moderato

mp

Just pond - er when you wand - er down "Lov - er's
Be - gin - ners are sure win - ners, so don't de

Till ready

Lane," You're play - ing a game, the same one that's been played for a - ges
- lay, You're bound to win if you will try the spec - u - la - tion,

She may a - gree then pos - si - bly she'll say, "No."
And tho' you fail, you need - n't wail at the cost.

I al - ways have found it so,
There's naught in "Love's La - bour Lost,"

Chorus

Love — is just a gam - ble take — an - oth - er chance,

Try — and make a luck - y guess, — Take — her for a ram - ble, It — may win a glance, That — will lead to hap - pi .

ness, _____ Cu - pid is the deal - er, he will start the game, Hearts are trumps that win ro - mance. _____

If _____ the hand you're play - ing Seems _____ to be dis - may - ing,

Al _____ ways take an - oth - er chance. _____ chance _____