Get Away, Old Man, Get Away

(Extra Verses)

7. Don't ever marry an old man
With whiskers on his map
They'll tickle you right in the ears
When you sit on his lap
8. Don't ever marry an old man
Who's got the rheumatiz
You'll have to rub his creaking joints
If that ain't work, what is?
9. Don't ever marry an old man
Who travels with a crutch
A skin all wrinkled ain't the kind
That you will love to touch.
10. Don't ever marry an old man
Who's got his life insured
One week upon a honeymoon
That old gink will be cured.
11. Don't ever marry an old man
Who's got a hacking cough
It may be forty-seven years
Before he's carried off.
12. Don't ever marry an old man
Whose fingers always shake
For he will be like castor oil
You'll find him hard to take.
13. Don't ever marry an old man
Expecting him to croak
That hacking cough he sprung on you
Was just a little joke.
14. Don't ever marry an old man
Because you sympathize
You'll find that sympathy
Appeals to those old guys.
15. Don't ever marry an old man
'Cause when the winter's cold
A nice warm place to put your feet
Is better far than gold.
