nights, you are charmed by the glare of the flame. ——— Lit - tle night, and it beams thru' the Home win - dow pane. ——— There two moth have a care, for the road to des - pair, is just crowd - ed by ten - der eyes yearn, long-ing for your re - turn, as they watch down the oth - ers who came; Who can tell in the fu - ture what old Vil - lage Lane; Take the train and go back where most may be your fate, Don't be sor - ry, just when it's too late. — folks are sin cere, You will find might - y few of them here. — poco rall.

Refrain (tenderly)

Lit - tle moth keep a - way from the flame. You are play - ing a dan - ger - ous game. 'Neath the light that shines so bright,

Man-y trust-ing hearts are ach-ing to night. Who's to blame, lit-tle moth, Who's to blame ——— If you fol-low the pathway to shame? ———

— Take the roadway that turns Where a mother's love yearns, lit-tle moth keep away from the flame. ——— Moth keep a - way from the flame. ——— high (ad lib) finish!
