Back in the days when Greece was might - y, Men used to wor - ship

p a tempo

Aph - ro - di - te. When the Phoe - ni - cians threw a par - ty

The dri - est host drank a toast to As-tar - te. The big E-gyp - tian sac - ri - fi - ces Were made to please the god - dess I - sis,

And one of my most an-cient vi - ces Is my wor-ship of you.

Refrain gracefully and not fast

I don't love you, dear; - I swear it's true.

I don't love you, dear; — I wor-ship you.

Must I mod-i - fy — my point of view?

Why should I be odd if I — wor - ship you? —

On that sa-cred day — When you be-come mine, Some - where, far a - way - I'll build you a mp

shrine. There I'll put you, dear, - And when I p

do, I'll get on my knees and wor - ship
