

Respectfully Dedicated TO ALL WHO

HURRAH FOR OUR NATIONAL GAME.

WALTER NEVILL

OF THE OLYMPIC B. B. CLUB OF NEW YORK.

3

NEW YORK.

Published by C. H. DITSON & CO., 711 Broadway

J. Church, Jr. Dinn.
J. C. Haynes & Co., Boston

Boston.
D. DITSON & CO.

C. W. A. Trumpler, Phil.
Lyon & Healy, Chicago.

Entered according to Act of Congress 10, 1868 by D. Ditson & Co. in the Clerk's Office of the District Court of Mass.

HURRAH FOR OUR NATIONAL GAME.

WALTER NEVILLE.

Tempo di marcia.

gva.

PIANO.

The piano introduction consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef with a key signature of one flat (B-flat) and a common time signature (C). It begins with a dotted quarter note G4, followed by a series of eighth and sixteenth notes forming a rhythmic pattern. The lower staff is in bass clef with a common time signature (C) and contains a series of chords and single notes, primarily octaves and dyads, providing a steady accompaniment.

Bold.

The first system of the song features a vocal line on a single staff in treble clef, with a key signature of one flat and a common time signature. The lyrics are: "1. Hur-rah for our game, our Nation.al, game There's health in its ev'. ry". The piano accompaniment is shown on two staves below the vocal line, with the upper staff in treble clef and the lower staff in bass clef, both in common time.

1. Hur-rah for our game, our Nation.al, game There's health in its ev'. ry

2. The tim - id lament o'er such danger-ous fun, And groan at "that terri-ble
3. The Gamester may boast of the pleasures of play, The Bil-liardist brag of his

The piano accompaniment for the second system continues on two staves (treble and bass clef) in common time, providing harmonic support for the vocal lines.

bound, A thrill of de-light in its ve-ry name, A ball? The la-zzy ones shrink from making "a run" And cue, The Horse jock-y gabble of next rac-ing day, The

The third system of the song features a vocal line on a single staff in treble clef, with a key signature of one flat and a common time signature. The lyrics are: "bound, A thrill of de-light in its ve-ry name, A ball? The la-zzy ones shrink from making 'a run' And cue, The Horse jock-y gabble of next rac-ing day, The". The piano accompaniment is shown on two staves below the vocal line, with the upper staff in treble clef and the lower staff in bass clef, both in common time.

24796

* The upper line in the accompaniment may be omitted if thought proper, as the remaining line will be found sufficient.

joy in its simplest sound; It lends new strength to our cowards are fearing a fall, But give us the dash of a Yachtman discourse of the Blue. The patrons of Rack et may rall:

a tempo.

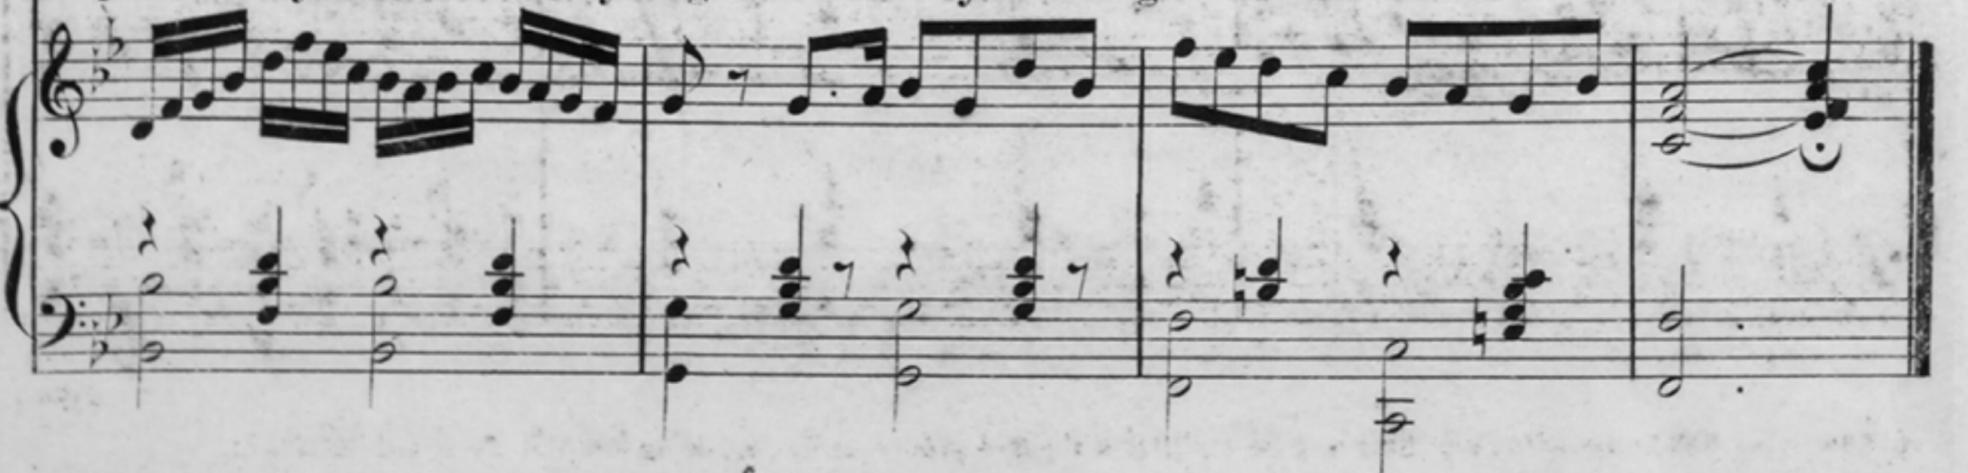

hardy race, And its pleasures are never fame, — — Then strong "home strike" And we laugh such folly to shame: — — Take feast on its joys, Whilst Cricket its lovers in flame, — — Cro . .

rall:

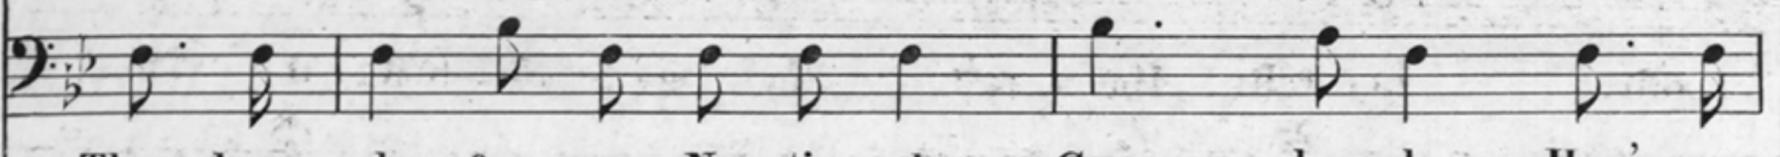

here's to the bat, the ball, and the base, Hurrah for our National Game.
all other sports and do what you like But leave us our National Game.
quet's very well for young ladies and boys But give us the National Game.

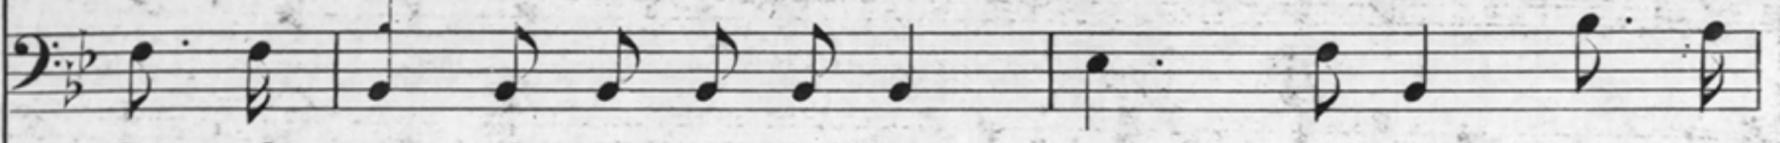

CHORUS.
Bold.

1st TENOR.
Then hur-rah for our Na-tion-al Game, hurrah, Here's a 2nd TENOR.

1st BASS.
Then hur-rah for our Na-tion-al Game, hurrah, Here's a 2nd BASS.

Tempo di marcia.

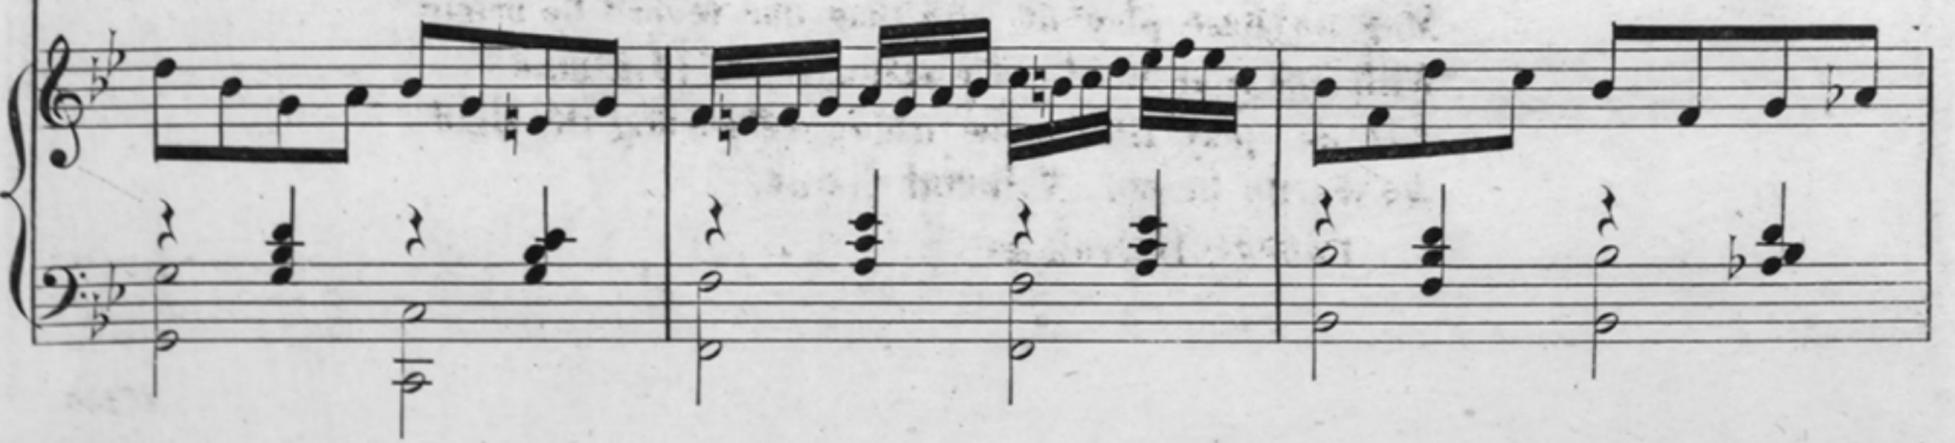

PIANO.

cheer for its well-earned fame, Suc-cess to it ev-er, Hur-

cheer for its well-earned fame, Suc-cess to it ev-er, Hur-

PIANO.

The musical score consists of five systems. The first two systems are vocal parts with lyrics: ". rah, hur-rah, Hur-rah for our Na-tion-al Game." The third system is a bass line. The fourth and fifth systems are piano accompaniment. The key signature has one flat (B-flat), and the time signature is 7/8. The music is in a simple, rhythmic style with a strong melody line.

4.

Now toss for the innings, the bases are down
 Outsiders go into the field,
 The scorer with tallies successes will crown,
 As each striker "the willow" doth wield,
 The Captains assign each player his place,
 The Umpire his rulings will name,
 To all their decisions submit with good grace
 As required by our National Game.

Chorus: Hurrah &c.

5.

And thus 'tis in life, each one has a post,
 Assigned by the Captain of all,
 While the great Umpire "Conscience" is guiding the host,
 Take heed that we list to his call.
 May no "base play" be ours, may our record be bright
 With no foul deeds our "clean score" to shame
 Let us play life's game nobly, respecting the right
 As we do in our National Game.

Chorus: Hurrah &c.