ONLY ME KNOWS WHY

Written and Composed by HAROLD WALDEN

Extra Choruses

My girl's gone wrong now,
And only me knows why;
She sends me crazy,
And only me knows why;
I met her at a party,
Sat next to her at tea;
I was just the flower,
She was the bumble bee,
Oh! How she stung me,
And only me knows why.

CHORUS.

I got to know her,
And only me knows why;
She is some goer,
And only me knows why;
She said she was a widow,
It was a pack of lies,
She'd had as many sweethearts,
As a tom-cat has wives,
She was no lady,
And only me knows why.

CHORUS.

She used to please me,
And only me knows why;
And Oh! how she'd tease me,
And only me knows why;
I suspected she was wicked,
I hadn't far to seek;
She used to wear silk stockings,
On fifteen bob a week;
She was no lady,
And only me knows why.

CHORUS.

She is well dressed now,
And only me knows why;
She drinks the best now,
And only me knows why;
The first time that I met her
She took me out to dine,
She started off with lemonade,
Finished up on wine,
She was no lady,
And only me knows why.

CHORUS.

I'm so unhappy now,
And only me knows why;
I feel so lonely,
And only me knows why;
I bought that girlie diamonds,
And a nice new motor car,
Then a sailor pinched her off me,
And you know what sailors are;
She is no lady,
And only me knows why.

CHORUS.

She used to hug me,
And only me knows why;
She said she loved me,
And only me knows why;
She spent all my money,
Then left me all alone,
Picked me just as clean
As any doggie picks a bone,
Now she's in Pentridge,
And only me knows why;
