DAVE STAMPER

Moderato

The musical score is written in a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat) and a common time signature (C). It consists of four systems of music. Each system includes a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The piano accompaniment is written in a grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The first system is marked 'Moderato' and 'mf'. The second system is marked 'mp'. The lyrics are: 'If the moon was a great big banjo, And it There's a ju-bi-lee up in the clouds, They all played ev'-ry sum-mer night, Then lov-ers could spoon to a hear the big ban-jo's tune, The ev-en-ing star comes way rag-time tune, And their hearts would be filled with de-light, And from a-far, Just to flirt with the man in the moon, The'. The piano accompaniment features a mix of chords and single notes, with some triplet rhythms in the bass line.

CHORUS

Ev'ry cloud would start in a roll - ing, Each plan - et would commence to glide, —

Ju-pi-ter sing-ing and Ven-us a swing-ing, A-round and a-round side by side,— While the moon would be play-ing, The earth would be sway-ing; Yes sway-ing to and fro,— Ev'-ry-thing in the air would be do-ing the "bear?" If the moon was a great big ban-jo, Way up in the sky.— Ev'-ry sky.—
