make your - self at home — Here's vir - gin land at your com - mand and lit - tle Yan - kee lad, — My heart filled up with joy, And we were ev - 'ry kind of seed So take your hoe, and go and sow, And proud to watch you grow, We worked and saved that in your life no grow what e'er you need. — Your Da - dy's rich to - day, but sure that's how he got his hard - ship you would know. — And when the years roll by, my boy, And you have chil - dren start. — So Lad - die let me say to you, what's here with - in my heart? — too, — Be sure and tell each one of them Just what I'm tell - ing you. —

CHORUS

a tempo

Keep a place down in your heart for Ire - land — But in Un - cle Sam - my put your trust, —

Work and pray — for him and march a - way — for him To help him fight his bat - tles if you must This is where your fa - ther made his home, sweet home, 'Tis your own dear hearts' de - si - re land So take your stand in Yan - kee - land But keep a place down in your heart for Ire - land. Keep a land.
