Moderato

The piano introduction consists of two staves in 2/4 time, marked Moderato and f. The right hand plays a series of chords, while the left hand plays a rhythmic accompaniment of eighth notes.

The piano accompaniment for the first part of the song, starting with a fermata. It features a melody in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand. A first ending bracket is present at the end of the section, marked with a first ending sign.

The vocal line and piano accompaniment for the second part of the song. The vocal line includes the lyrics: "fool there was," said Smith to Gray, "And that same fool was me, Not hate to hear the mar-ried men com-plain-ing all the time, One". The piano accompaniment is marked p and features a melody in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand.

sat - is - fied with bach - 'lor bliss, I took a wife you see." Said would im - ag - ine mar - ried life was an - y - thing but fine, They

The first system of music features a vocal line in the treble clef and a piano accompaniment in the grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat), and the time signature is 4/4. The lyrics are: "sat - is - fied with bach - 'lor bliss, I took a wife you see." Said / would im - ag - ine mar - ried life was an - y - thing but fine, They".

Gray to Smith, "You're cra - zy man, why, mar - ried life is fine, I dont ap - pre - ci - ate the wife who helps to make life gay, But

The second system continues the musical notation. The lyrics are: "Gray to Smith, 'You're cra - zy man, why, mar - ried life is fine, I / dont ap - pre - ci - ate the wife who helps to make life gay, But".

have the dear - est lit - tle wife and let me say for mine.....
far be it from me to frown, I mean it when I say.....

The third system concludes the musical notation. The lyrics are: "have the dear - est lit - tle wife and let me say for mine..... / far be it from me to frown, I mean it when I say.....".
