Fervently, with good rhythm

VOICE.

Jean, my Jean, with the

eyes of light, And the beau-ti-ful, soft, brown hair, Do you know that I'm long-ing for you to -night, For your lips, for the clasp of your hand so white, And the sound of your voice so dear? — Jean, my Jean, with the rit.

glan - ces bright, Where the smile shines through the tear,

Do you know that I'm call-ing to you to - night, Where the sea - gulls cry like ghosts in flight An' the dark falls lone and drear? — Jean, my Jean, where the snow drifts white, Thro' the an-swer-less, i - cy air, — Ah, would to God you were here to - night, Braid-ing your beau-ti - ful tress-es of light, And that I were ly - ing there! —
