Lock Me In Your Harem And Throw Away The Key

Words and Music
By IRVING BERLIN

Allegro moderato

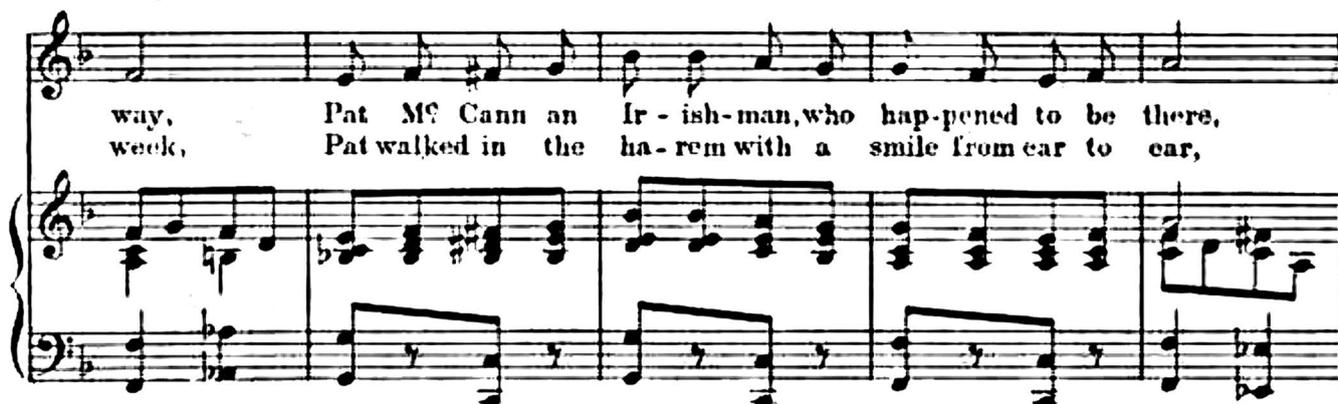

The first system of the score is a piano introduction. It consists of two staves: a treble clef staff and a bass clef staff. The music is in 2/4 time and features a rhythmic pattern of eighth and sixteenth notes, with some chords. The tempo is marked 'Allegro moderato'.

The second system contains the first line of the vocal melody and its piano accompaniment. The vocal line is on a single treble clef staff, and the piano accompaniment is on a grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The lyrics are: "In the heart of Cai - ro the / When the Sul - tan brushed off his". The piano part includes a section marked "Till Ready" with a fermata over the first few measures.

The third system continues the vocal melody and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "Sul - tan one day / clothes and could speak / Near - ly lost his life when his horse ran a - / He replied you're wel - come to stay for a".

The fourth system concludes the vocal melody and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "way, / week, / Pat Mc Cann an Ir - ish - man, who hap - pened to be there, / Pat walked in the ha - rem with a smile from ear to ear,".

Stopped the horse and saved the Sul - tan's life by a hair, The Tho' the Sul - tan said a week, he stayed for a year. The Sul - tan said "I'll give you an - y - thing I can af - ford, morn - ing af - ter Pat came home his wife be - gan to weep,

Pat - rick an - swered, "If you want to give me a re - ward"
He could not ex - plain why he was sing - ing in his sleep.

CHORUS

Lock me in your ha - rem and throw the key a - way. Let me cud - dle - iddle up to Ro-sie and May, Let me see the fat one, who dances all the day, My eyes were made for see-ing, Hon-est I'm a human be-ing, Down in your ha-rem there's Ro-sie, Jo-sie, Posie and I know that you could spare em, So won't you let me stay, Locked in the ha-rem with the keys thrown a - way. way.
