Someone's Waiting for Me.

(We'll Wait, Wait, Wait.)

Words & Music by
Edgar Leslie and Irving Berlin.

Tempo di Valse.

Piano.

The piano introduction is written for a grand piano in 3/4 time, featuring a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat). It begins with a mezzo-forte (mf) dynamic and includes a crescendo leading to a forte (f) dynamic. The melody is primarily in the right hand, with a supporting bass line in the left hand.

Hen-peck O' John-son and Hen-peck O'
While they were wait-ing a wai-ter named
Mrs. — O' John-son and Mrs. — O'

The vocal line is in a soprano range, with lyrics aligned under the notes. The piano accompaniment continues with a piano (p) dynamic, featuring a melodic line in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand.

Day, Made an ap-point-ment with Mol-ly and Binks, Wai-ted for tips while they wai-ted for
Day, Hap-pened to stroll in the same swell Ca-

The vocal line continues with the second verse. The piano accompaniment provides harmonic support with a piano (p) dynamic.
