bout the great New York; He left the farm, where all was calm and land-ed on old Broad-way, He give a bull a scare; I want to eat, but I re-peat, I don't want to buy the place," And coaxed a lit-tle Ma-ry Ann in-to a swell ca-fé. The wai-ter brought the card and said, "what Ma-ry Ann was sit-ting there with blush-es on her face. She said, "I'll have a lit-tle steak, that's will you have," to Pat; Then Pat looked at the pric-es and he said "I'll have me hat" all I want right now;" And Pat said, "what it costs for steaks, why I could buy a cow"

CHORUS

Ar - rah go on, I'm gon - na go back to O - re - gon, Ar - rah go on, I'm gon - na go back and stay. I could buy the hors - es
