Piano

The piano introduction consists of two staves. The right hand begins with a treble clef, a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat), and a 2/4 time signature. It starts with a forte (f) dynamic and features a series of eighth and sixteenth notes, creating a rhythmic melody. The left hand, in bass clef, provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and single notes.

Do you re - call when we met? How you

This system contains the first line of the song. The vocal line is on a single staff with a treble clef, starting with a piano (p) dynamic. The lyrics are "Do you re - call when we met? How you". The piano accompaniment is on two staves (treble and bass clefs), with the right hand marked legato. The music continues with a flowing melody in the right hand and a steady accompaniment in the left.

sang, just to me, all night long.

This system contains the second line of the song. The vocal line continues from the previous system, with the lyrics "sang, just to me, all night long." The piano accompaniment continues with a similar texture, featuring a melodic line in the right hand and a supporting line in the left.

criso.
I called you my "Chan-son - ette" For to

This system contains the third line of the song. The vocal line begins with a criso. (crescendo) marking. The lyrics are "I called you my 'Chan-son - ette' For to". The piano accompaniment features a more active right hand with frequent chords and a steady bass line.
