Till Ready

Good-bye, I'm leav-ing town, I've sent my What's mine you'll find is yours, My folks keep bag-gage down, To the rail-way sta-tion; I've had my va-ca-tion,

"O - pen Doors," An - y - one who will come; Is en - tire - ly wel-come,

Be - fore I go a - way, - This much I want to say, -
And you'll be glad to stay, - Where health-y chick-ens lay, -

I would like to have you call on me some day. —
Six - ty cents - a - doz - en eggs, The live - long day. —

CHORUS

When you're down in Ten - nes - see, — Stop at Chat - tan - oog - a,

Stop at Chat - tan - oog - a, Don't for - get to call on me, —

Down in Chat - tan - oog - a, Down in Chat - tan - oog - a, Ac - cept my in - vi - ta - tion, You can make your-self at home, —

I'll meet you at the sta - tion, With a "Gid - dy - ap, Gid - dy - ap"

Na - pol - e - on, You'll find hos - pit - al - i - ty, —

Down in Chat - tan - oog - a, Down in Chat - tan - oog - a,

You're just as wel - come as — you can be, —

— You'll find a men - u, a men - u, With a lot of things to eat up - on it when you, Come to chat - tan - oog - a,

Chat - tan - oog - a, Ten - nes - see. — see. —
