On With The Dance

(Introduced by Eleanor Shaler and June Cochrane)

Lyric by LORENZ HART

Music by
RICHARD RODGERS

Allegro moderato

Piano introduction in B-flat major, 4/4 time. The music is marked f (forte). It features a rhythmic pattern of eighth and sixteenth notes in the right hand, with a steady bass line in the left hand.

Voice

Voice line for the first line of lyrics, starting on a half note G4 and moving in a descending eighth-note scale.

There's a rev-o-lu-tion Cut-ting loose like the deuce; It's a thunder-bolt.

Piano accompaniment for the first line of lyrics, marked p (piano). It continues the rhythmic pattern from the introduction.

Voice line for the second line of lyrics, continuing the descending eighth-note scale.

It's the ev-o-lu-tion Of the truth call-ing youth with a mighty jolt.

Piano accompaniment for the second line of lyrics, continuing the rhythmic pattern.

It says you mus-n't con-ceal An - y - thing you feel.

In it's ex - e - cu - tion This new dance, at a glance, Is a big re - volt:

Chorus

On with the dance, and off — with your scrup-les; Come take a chance you all —

— can be pu - pils. It may be rude, it may — be crude, But don't say no _____ You like ro-mance; don't try—— to sup - press it Break in - to dance You're sure — to con - fess it.

Don't you a-void what you've en-joyed; Just let 'er go. _____ And if you're fall-ing in love, You don't have to call a phys - i - cian;

Start in - to dance, and step — on that mean in-hi - bi - tion! You can dance with your Nell, and dance — with your Sal - ly, Dance on the El, and dance —

— in the al - ley; Don't look ask-ance, But on, on, with the dance! — dance! —
