THE TWIN BROTHERS.

A SONG OF MYSTERY.

WRITTEN BY

HENRY S. LEIGH.

MODERATO.

In form and feature, face and limb, I grew so like my brother, That folks got ta-king me for him, And each for one an-o-ther. It puz-zled all our kith and kin, It reach'd a fear-ful pitch; For colla voce.

one of us was born a twin, And not a soul knew which!

gva One day (to make the mat-ter worse) Be-fore our names were fix'd, As we were be-ing wash'd by nurse, We got com-plete-ly mix'd; And thus you see, by Fate's de-cree, (Or, ra-ther, Nur... se's whim,) My

brother John got christen'd me, And I got christen'd him!

3

gva This

fa-tal likeness e-ven dogg'd My foot-steps when at school; And I was al-ways getting flogg'd, For John turn'd out a fool.... I put this question fruit-less-ly To ev'-ry - one I knew; "What colla voce.

would you do, if you were me, To prove that you were you!"

gva Our close resemblance turn'd the tide, Of my do-mes-tic life,... For, somehow, my in-tend-ed bride, Be-came my bro-ther's wife... In fact, year af-ter year the same Ab-surd mistakes went on, And, when I died, the neighbours came And bu-ried Brother John.

colla voce:
