Will you come a - long poor wo - man to a mas - quer - ade with me,
There's his pho - to with my own, and our dear ba - by who is dead,

There'll be ma - ny strange dis - guis - es, No one will the dif - ference tell,
Tis too true the rich girl ans - wered, His false love I now will scorn,

It will be a small sen - sa - tion, Doubt not I will pay you well.
And her dark eyes shed with an - ger, As she told the man "be - gone,"

In the car - riage stepped the beg - gar, both were quick - ly dri - ven 'long,
Then she whisp - ered to the beg - gar, Through this world no more you'll roam,

Till they en - tered in the ball - room, gazed at by a 'won - d'ring throng.
Ours shall be a life - long friend - ship, you shall share my heart and home.

When Wealth, etc.

CHORUS.

One was a girl in a rag - ged dress, One in a silk - en gown, —

One had come from a wretch - ed slum, One from a man - sion in town, —

Wealth and pov - er - ty side by side, a con - trast that none could for - get, — For a man's false heart, was ex - posed that night, when Wealth and Pov - er - ty met. —
