

WHY SHOULD I FALL FOR ONE LITTLE GIRL?

Words and Music by
The MARX BROTHERS

FRED FISHER MUSIC CO.
1055 BROADWAY, NEW YORK

Why Should I Marry One Little Girl?

Revised by
HEN and SAM ALKELMAN

Words and Music by
THE MARK BRUS

Moderato

VOICE

Marriage is a bit-ter-ry And tho' it is de-lic-i-ous but it is a bit-ter-ry You who come to a while When it comes to marriage, I squeak Don't want to live with her, I want to talk

CHORUS

Why should I fall for one lit-tle girl When I love them all

Copyright 1935 by FRANK PETERSON MUSIC CO., 1635 Broadway, New York, N.Y.

International Copyright Secured. Made in U.S.A. Including the right of Public Performance for Profit. All Rights Reserved

Why should I fall — say — why should I wait — try — how — or — say —
I give my love — to — one in the sky —

Have the same break - fast for dinner each day — In my so - ci - e - ty
I make a mil - lion an' hop py you see —

I like va - ri - e - ty — for each new face I fall — say — I

I think I'm as able as a-ble as Clark Gable — Why should I — fall for one in the sky —
par - lot — and church — it's good enough for the birds —

When I love them all — Why should I —