Here's the sto-ry of a brok-en ro-mance Long a-go in It-al-y.
May-be one day I'll go o-ver the sea To that par-a-dise a-gain.

All that lin-gers of that won-der-ful chance Is just a mem-o - ry. —
 Ev-'ry night in dreams that sweet mem-o - ry Beck-ons to me in vain. —

Refrain (not fast) p-mf

I dream of San Mar - in - o, On a sun - ny sum - mer day, When such a charm - ing per - son came and stole my heart a - way; We fell in love com - plete - ly, 'Neath the blue I - tal - ian skies, I dream of San Mar - i - no, For it was a par - a - dise, We mp plann'd hand in hand such a won-der-land, That we were to share bye and bye. But fate came and shat-tered our won-der-land And I had to leave ^{her}_{him} a-lone to cry. I dream of San Mar - i - no Ev - en tho' we're miles a - part, For back in San Mar - i - no I left my heart. I heart.
