

183-
C5819
16

New York.

What a charming City!

Written and Composed

BY

I. A. CAIRDNER. A. M.

New York, BOURNE, Broadway.

Lith. of Pennington.

NEW YORK.

OR

Oh! what a Charming City

Favorite New Ballad.

Written and Composed
by

J. GARDNER, A.M.

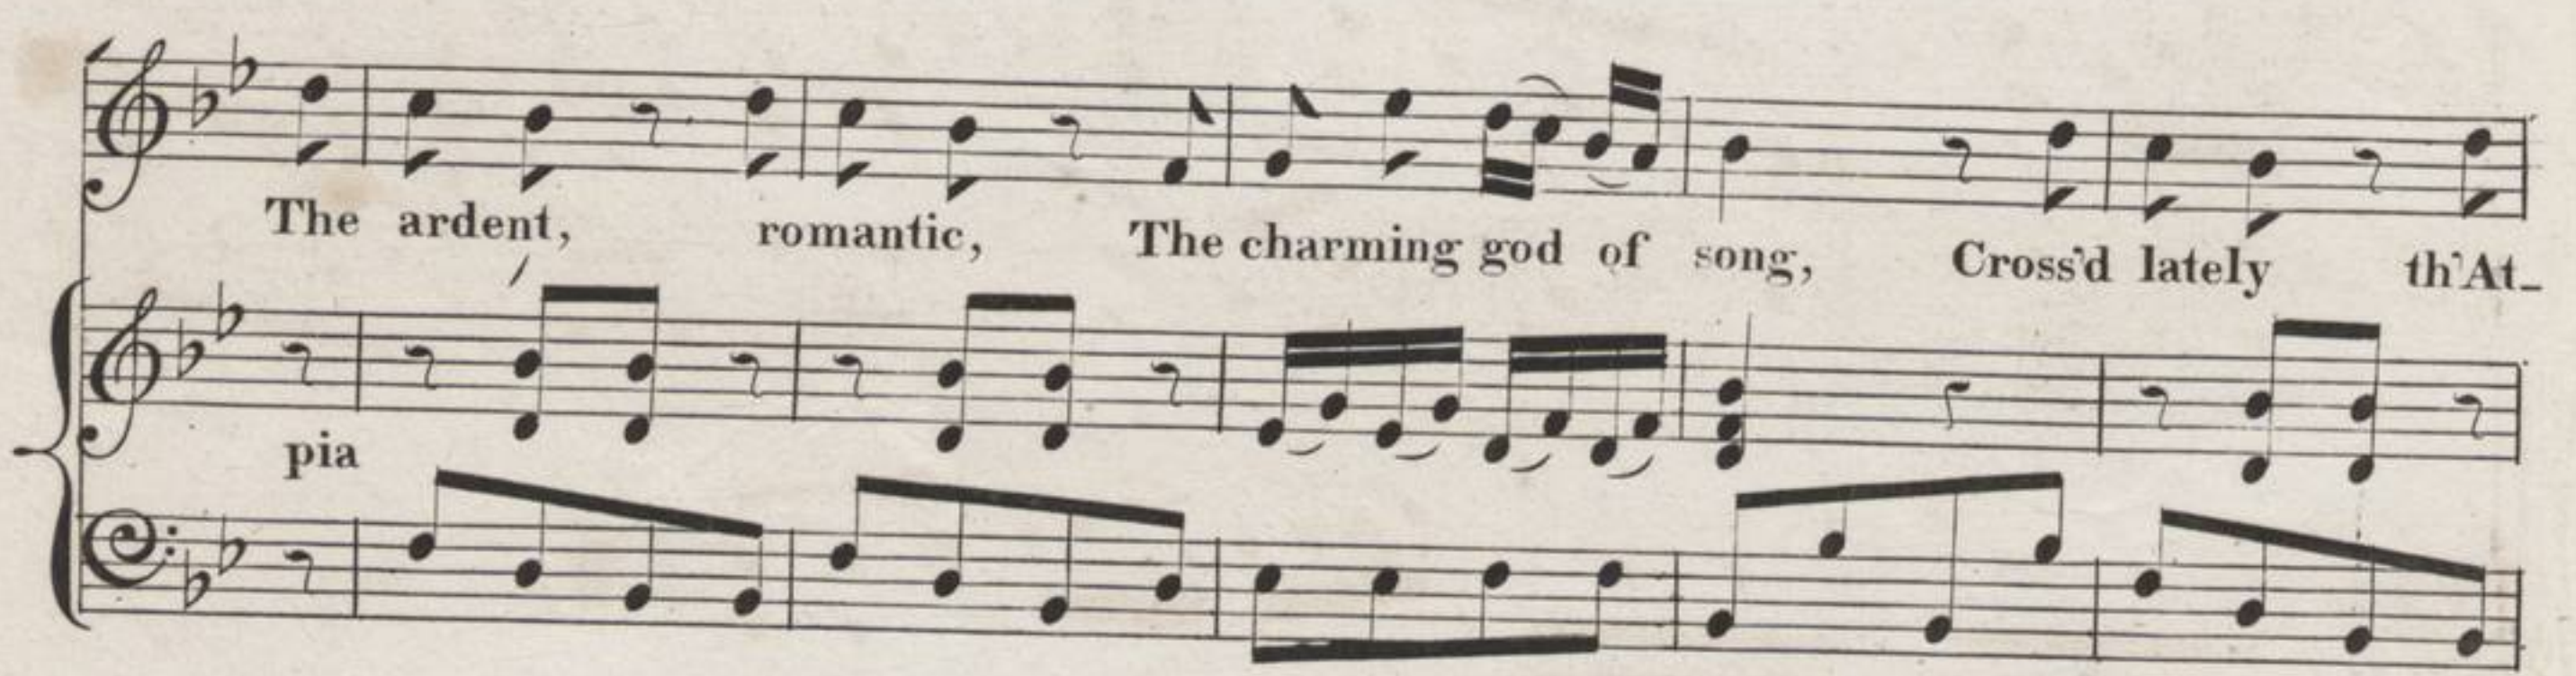

New York. BOURNE Depository of Arts. 359 Broadway.

VIVACE
dolce
Moderatto

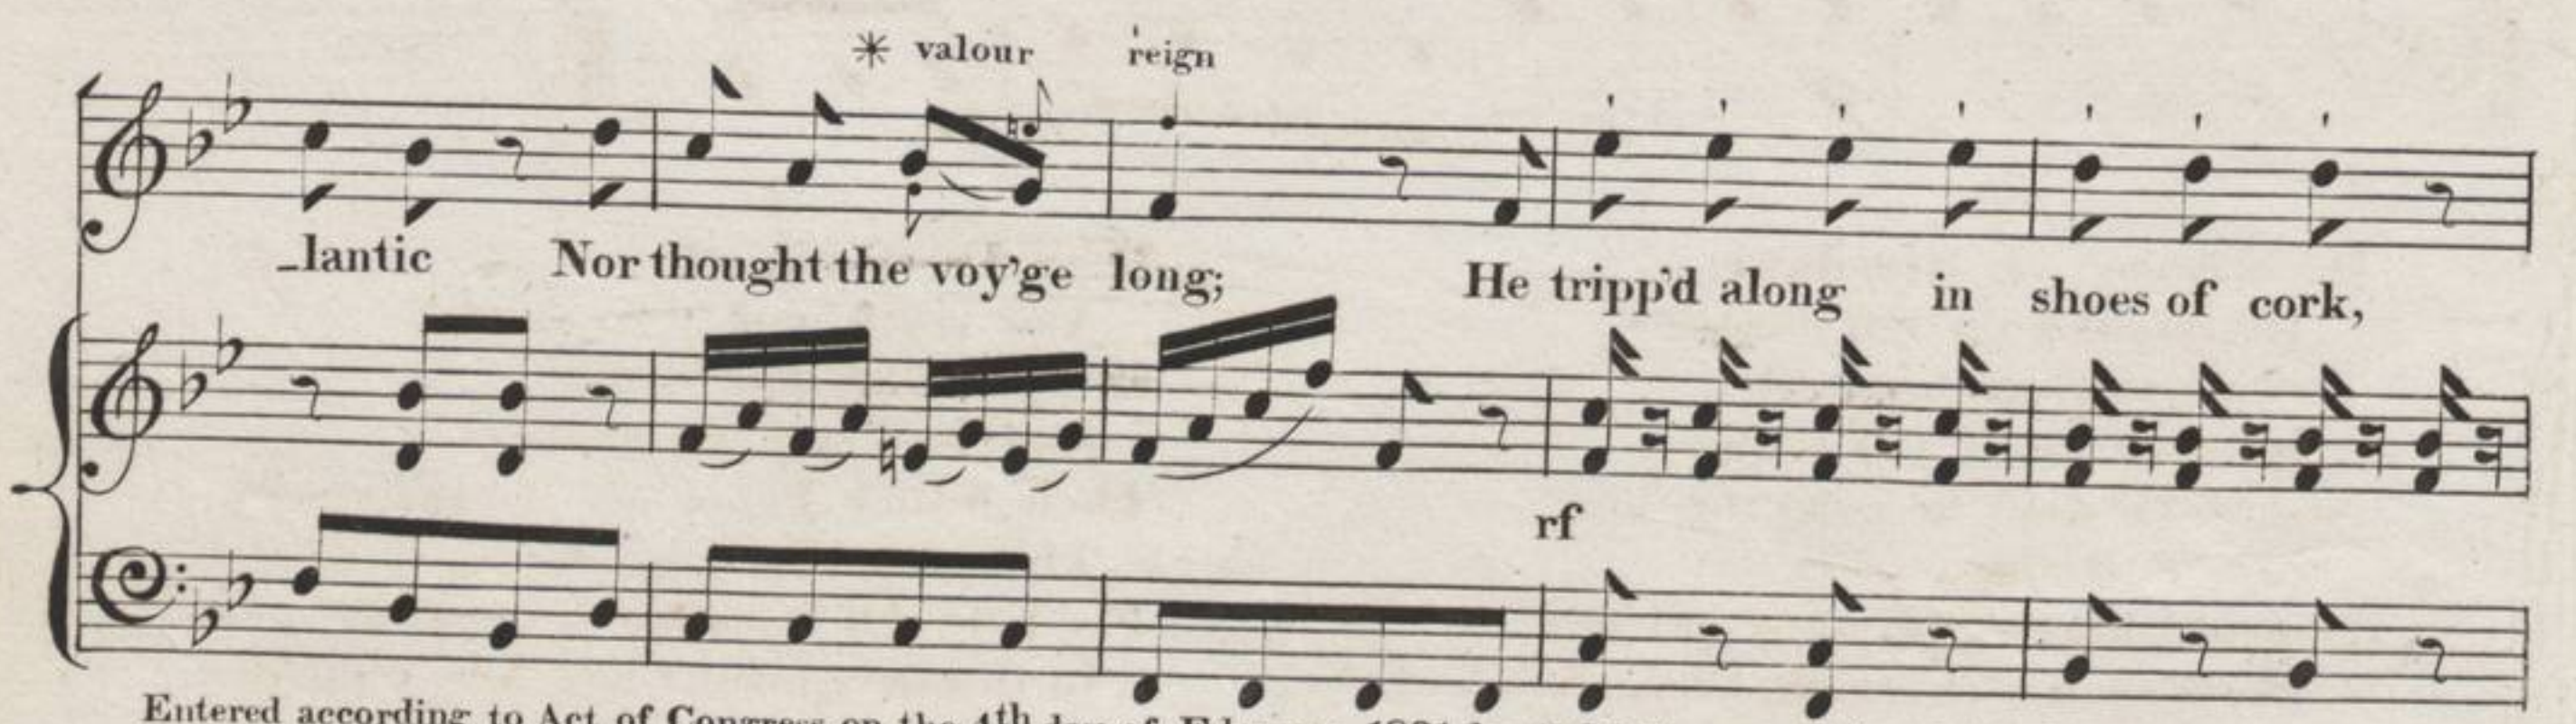

The ardent, romantic, The charming god of song, Cross'd lately th'At-

pia

* valour reign
-lantic Nor thought the voy'ge long; He tripp'd along in shoes of cork,

rf

Entered according to Act of Congress, on the 4th day of February, 1831, by G.M. Bourne, of the State of New York.

Singing ma-ny a ditty, But he chang'd his song when he reach'd New York, To what a charming City. New York! New York! Oh! what a charming

City. New York! New York! Oh what a charming City.

2
In Bowery, in Broadway,
He rambl'd up and down,
Took byway, and oddway,
Resolv'd to see the town;
And as he went, he sung this song,
"Now, is it not a pity,"
I should have stay'd away so long,
From such a charming City. New York &c.

3
Here Freedom, and duty,
And truth, and taste remain,
Here honour, and beauty,
And love, and*valour reign;
Then hither Freedom's friends resort,
The grave, the gay, the witty,
For here I'll henceforth keep my court,
In this delightful City. New York &c.

