Sal - ly, dear, it's been a year, Since I left Ar - kan - Blue-eyed hon - ey, I've saved mon - ey for a rain - y saw, Lord - y knows I miss "ya," How I long to kiss "ya!"

day, So in an - y weath - er, We can be to - geth - er.

But at last the time has passed, And now I'm com - in' home, So Now's the time make up your mind, To wear a wed - din' ring, And note for note this song I wrote, To sing for you a - lone:

may - be we can start to raise, A gar - den in the Spring:

Chorus

Pret - ty lit - tle blue - eyed Sal - ly, ———

p-f

Bet - ter times are com - in', wait and see.

Ev - 'ry hill - y Bil - ly in the val - ley, ———

Will hear those church bells ring - in' That coun - try choir — sing - in',

We'll be hap - py blue-eyed Sal - ly, — In a rus - tic shack for two. — Down on that O-zark trail there'll be big do - ins', When 'we-uns'

meet with 'you-uns', Blueeyed Sally I love you. — you. —
