Moderato e dolce

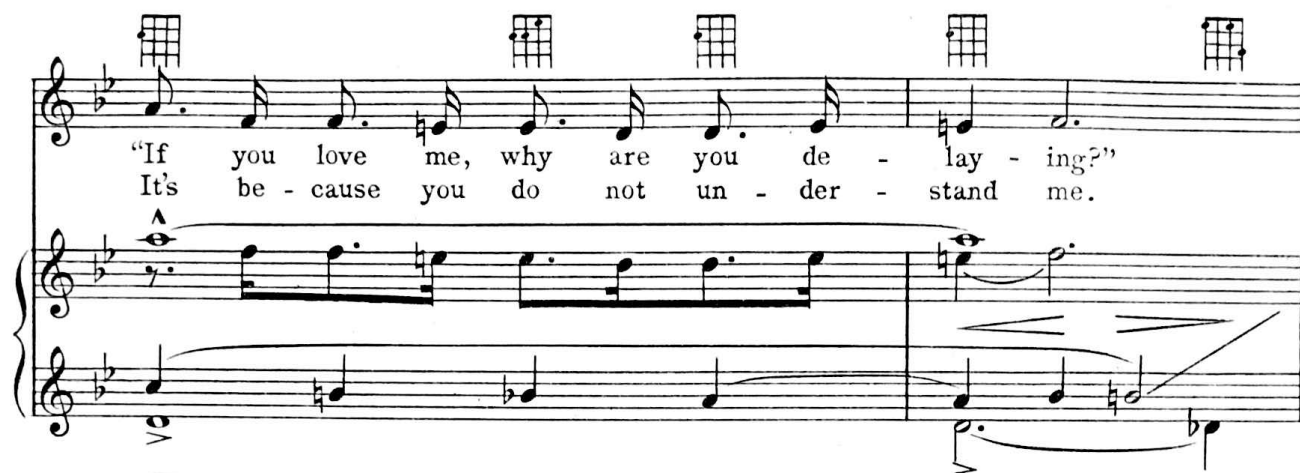

Piano

The piano introduction consists of two staves. The right hand plays a series of chords and single notes, while the left hand provides a harmonic accompaniment. The tempo is marked 'Moderato e dolce'.

The first vocal entry features two lines of lyrics: Dick: Seems to me you're rather fond of play-ing; and Polly: Real-ly, dear, you should-n't re-pri-mand me;. The piano accompaniment is shown on two staves below the vocal line.

The second vocal entry continues the lyrics: Seems to me you'll nev-er set-tle down. Yet I must for-give you when you do. The piano accompaniment continues on two staves.

The third vocal entry concludes the lyrics: Tell me, do you think I'm wrong in say-ing: Though a lit-tle fib-ber you may brand me, The piano accompaniment concludes on two staves.

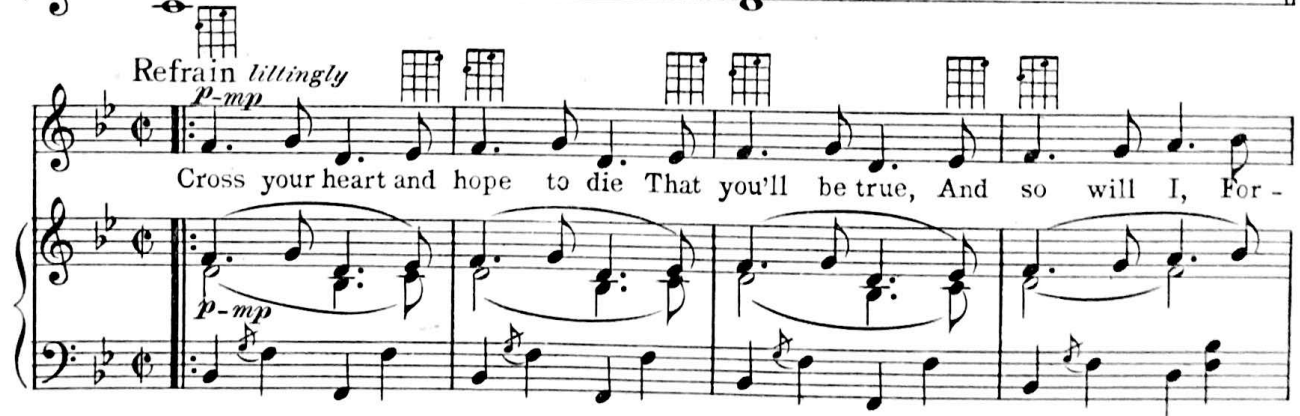

"If you love me, why are you de-lay-ing?"
It's be-cause you do not un-der-stand me.

Of your lov-ing li-bels I have had a pre-view;
Which of us is straight-er? Which, in mor-als, loos-er?

Cross your heart and hope to die That you'll be true, And so will I, For - ev - er and for - ev - er and a day!

Cross your heart and hope to die That I'm the ap - ple of your eye And nev - er will you ev - er get a - way!

Morn - ings we will kiss good-bye; At eve - ning kiss hel - lo;

Sun - days we will nev - er be a - part, sweet - heart.
