I'LL BE WELCOME IN MY HOME TOWN

(GOOD-BYE TO BRIGHT LIGHTS)

WORDS BY

WM. TRACEY

WRITER OF
"BARBER SHOP CHORD"
"GEE BUT IT'S GREAT TO MEET A FRIEND FROM YOUR HOME TOWN"
"FUNNY BUNNY HUG"
ETC.

MUSIC BY

HARRY JENTES

POPULAR EDITION
LEO. FEIST NEW YORK
ASCHERBERG HOPWOOD & CREW, LTD. LONDON, ENGLAND

E. H. Pfeiffer N.Y.

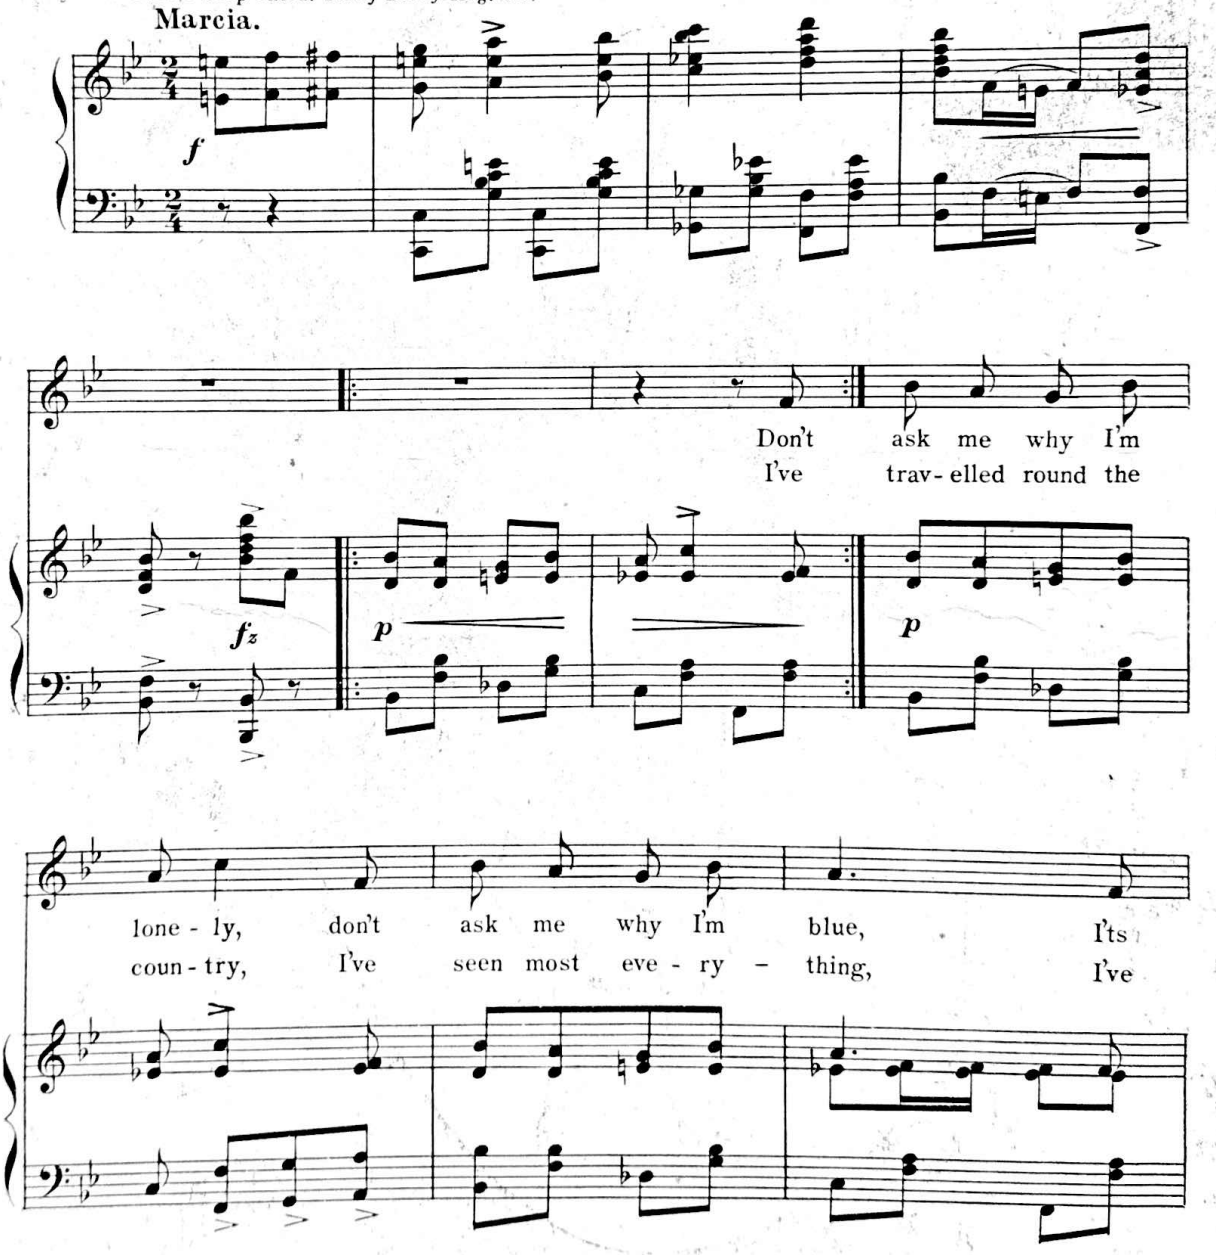

I'll Be Welcome In My Home Town.

(GOOD BYE TO BRIGHT LIGHTS.)

Words by
Wm. Tracey.
Writer of
"Gee But It's Great To Meet A Friend From Your Home Town."
"Play That Barber Shop Chord." "Funny Bunny Hug." etc.

Music by Harry Jentes.

Marcia.

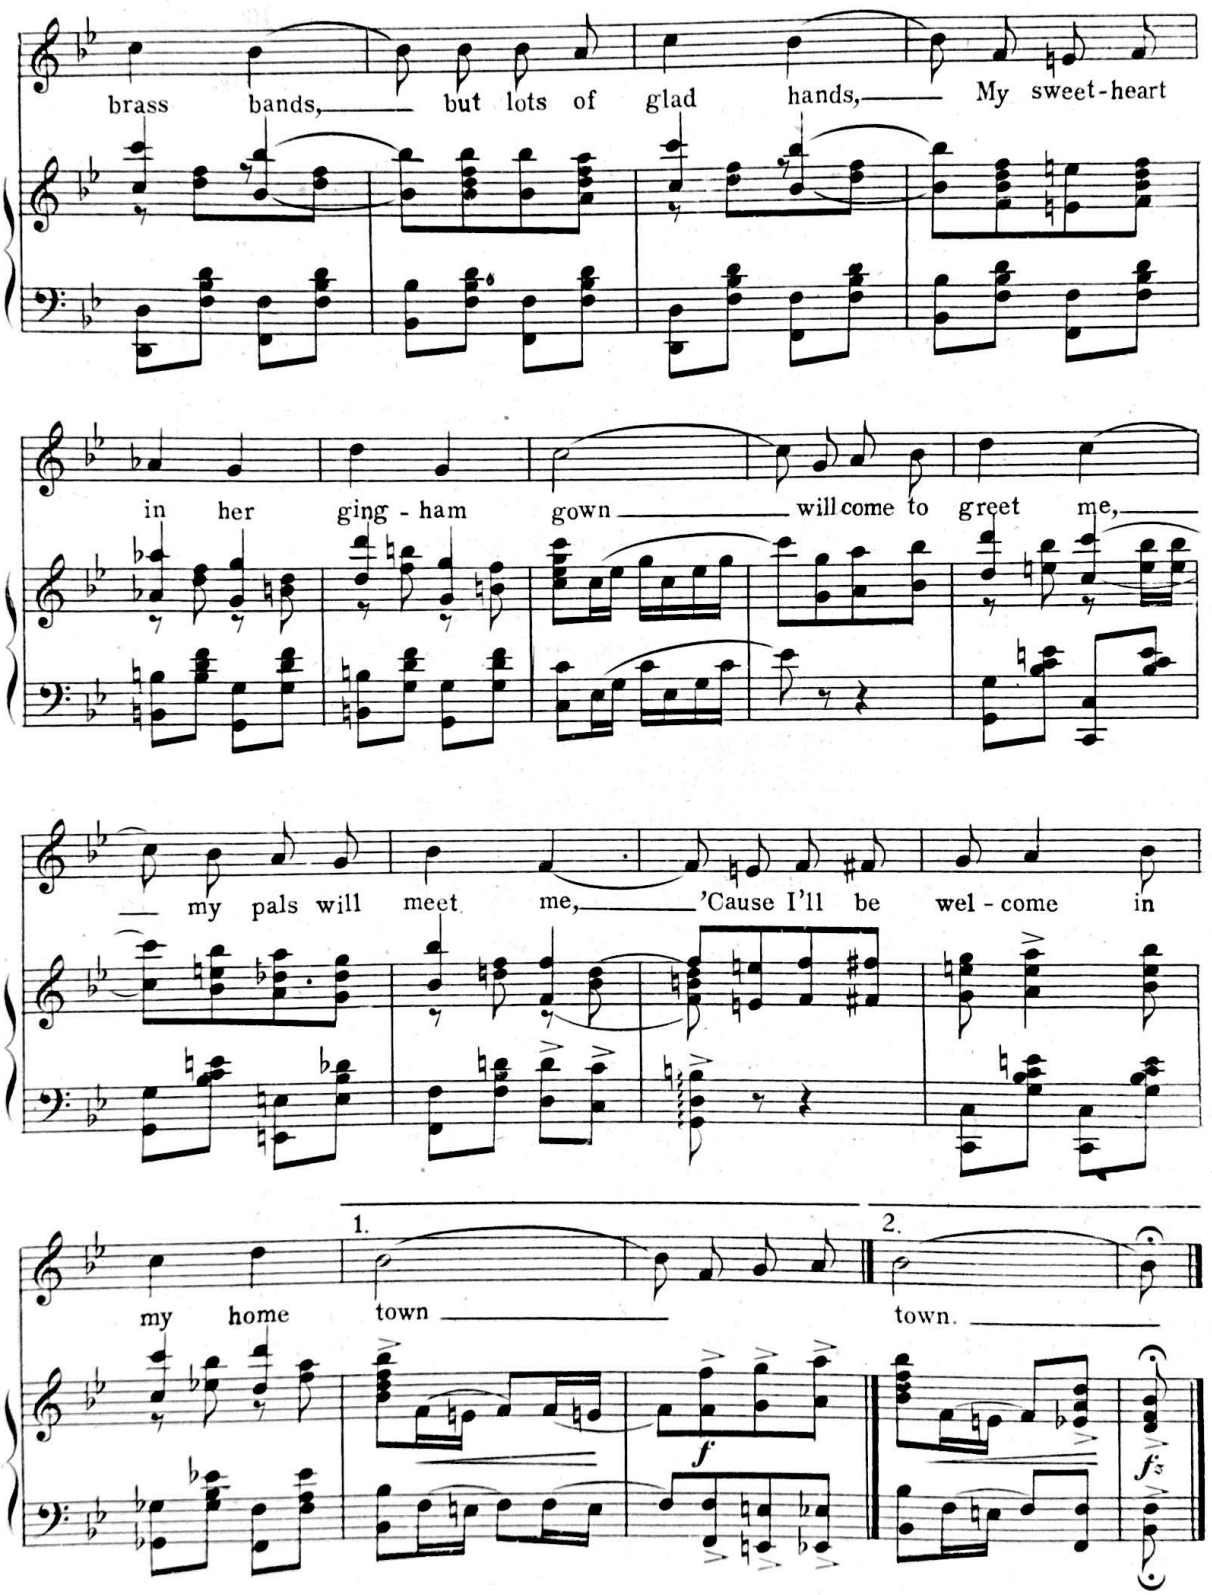

Copyright MCMXII by William Tracey. Music Pub. Co.
International Copyright Secured.

Copyright assigned MCMXII to Leo. Feist, Inc., Feist Building, New York.

just a fun - ny feel - ing that I can't ex - plain to had my share of hard - ships and I've lived just like a
you. I have no cause to wor - ry, no king. I've made a lot of new friends, some
rit. poco a poco.
rea - son to com - plain, But I'm in an aw - ful good and oth - ers bad, But there's two friends who are
rit. poco a poco.
hur - ry, 'cause I want to catch my train. Good - bye to true friends, they're your moth - er and your dad. Good - bye to a tempo

Chorus. bright lights, farewell to white lights, I'm sat - is - p-f fied I've seen the big town and the great sights, But good old Maine folks are sim - ple plain folks, No fan-cy dres - ses, just fond ca - res - - - ses; There'll be no

TELLER, SONS & DORNER, NEW-YORK.